

Town of Bennington Open Position

The Town of Bennington is seeking qualified candidates for the position of Water Division – Water/Distribution System Operator for the Department of Public Works. This position primarily involves maintenance and repair of the water distribution system which includes a water filtration plant and several pump stations.

The position is full-time with benefits. The hourly pay range is : $28.23 - $29.48 per hour. Qualifications include, at a minimum, a high school diploma or equivalent, a Class 4C Vermont Water Certification or the ability to obtain one within 24 months following date of hire, and experience operating equipment is preferred. Must possess a valid driver's license maintained in good standing with 2 years of driving experience. A Commercial Driver's license, Class B must be obtained within six (6) months of employment. The Town will assist with education.

A complete job description is available on the Town of Bennington's website at www.benningtonvt.org. Applications may be obtained at the Bennington Town Offices, Reception. Applications and resumes should be sent to the Town of Bennington, ATTN: Director of Human Resources, 205 South Street, P.O. Box 469, Bennington, Vermont, 05201. Closing date for applications is Tuesday, May 20, 2025, at 4 PM.

Bennington is an EOE employer. The Town of Bennington does not discriminate against a qualified individual with a disability in the